David (Mauricio Ochmann) es un empresario de éxito que tiene una vida acomodada junto a su novio Álex (Alfonso Bassave), un atractivo monitor de gimnasio. Álex siempre ha querido ser padre y a menudo se plantea qué camino seguir para lograrlo... ¿Adopción? ¿Vientre de alquiler? Aunque David no quiere ni oír hablar del tema.

Todo sigue su curso hasta que irrumpe en sus vidas Blanca (Maite Perroni), la hermana de David con la que rompió toda relación tras un oscuro suceso del pasado. Blanca fue acusada del terrible descuido que provocó el incendio en el que perdieron la vida sus padres, por lo que pagó 6 años de cárcel a pesar de los esfuerzos de Ángel (Pedro Casablanc), abogado y exnovio de David, por salvarla en el juicio. Ahora empieza una nueva etapa y está decidida a recuperar la única familia que tiene: su hermano David. Y será capaz de hacer cualquier cosa para que su hermano vuelva a aceptarla en su vida.

David is a successful businessman, who leads a comfortable life along with his boyfriend Alex, an attractive gym instructor. Alex has always wanted to be a dad and often weighs up different options for how to achieve this... Adoption? Surrogacy? David, however, has no interest in parenting whatsoever.

Everything is going well in their lives until the apparition of Blanca, David's sister who he cut off all ties with after a dark event in their past. Blanca was a drug addict and the cause of a terrible accident that started the fire that took their parents' lives. She spent six years in jail for her crime, despite the best efforts of Angel, David's ex-boyfriend, to save her during the trial. Now, out of prison and clean, she's determined to get back the only family she has left, her brother David, and is prepared to do anything to get him to accept her back into his life.
