Documental contado en primera persona por Miguel, "El Músico", un exproxeneta y dueño de algunos de los más importantes macroburdeles de España, condenado y sentenciado a 27 años de cárcel, que ha confesado con pelos y señales cómo ha evolucionado la prostitución en España y en el mundo, y cómo a principios de los años noventa surgió el espeluznante negocio de la trata y se empezó a secuestrar mujeres de "deuda", cuya única salida era la prostitución.

This documentary is told in the first person by Miguel, "The Musician", a former pimp and owner of some of the most important and biggest brothels in Spain, who was convicted and sentenced to 27 years in prison. He later confessed the gory and astonishing details of how prostitution has evolved both in Spain and in the world, and how at the beginning of the nineties sex slave trafficking started to flourish, kidnapping women and putting them in debt, forcing them into prostitution.
