¿Cómo pudo un cura de parroquia poner en marcha en 1956 un ensayo empresarial sin precedentes, en mitad de un régimen dictatorial en el que hacer algo innovador resultaba sospechoso de subversión, y que 60 años después sea el mayor grupo empresarial del País Vasco y un referente empresarial y humano a nivel mundial?

How could a parish priest, in 1965, under a dictatorship where any innovation was met with suspicions of subversion, set in motion an unprecedented entrepreneurial experiment which, 60 years later, is the biggest corporate group in the Basque Country and a business and human example to follow around the world?
